ALL MEATS TO BE INSPECTED

Secretary Morton's Latest Order Respecting Product for Export.

No Matter How It Is Shipped, a Certificate Must Accompany It—All Other Instructions Revoked.

Secretary Morton has issued the following order under the act of March 2, 1895: It is ordered that all beef ordered for exportation, whether fresh, salted, canned or packed, shall be accompanied by a certificate of an inspector of this department showing that the cattle from which it was produced were free from disease, and that the meat was sound and wholesome.

And in order that it may be determined whether all beef exported has been so inspected and found free from disease and wholesome, it is further ordered that the meat from all other species of animals which is packed in barrels, cases or other packages, shall be legibly marked in such manner as to clearly indicate the species of animals from which the meat was produced.

Meat which is not so marked, and which is not accompanied by a certificate of inspection, will be subject to unpacking and examination in order to ascertain if it is unsound beef.

Notice is hereby given to exporters of beef, whether said beef is fresh, salted, canned, corned, packed, or otherwise prepared, and to owners and agents of vessels upon which said beef is exported, that no clearance can be given to any vessel having on board said beef until the provisions of this order are complied with. As reliable evidence has been submitted showing that a large quantity of inspected beef has been prepared for exportation the identity of which has been lost in the process of curing, and that the immediate enforcement of this order would prevent the fulfillment of many contracts now outstanding, and as it is also evident that the inspection force of this department must be increased before the trade can be properly accommodated, it is directed that this order shall not be enforced until January 1, 1896.

OUR LEATHER IN GERMANY.

Manufacturers Over There Trying to Discover the American Process. Consul H. F. Merrill, stationed at Marburg, Germany, in a report on the use of American leather in Germany, says its importation is increasing. Shoe manufacturers who, 150 years ago, would not look at American glazed keds, are now importing hundreds of dozens at a time. It may fairly be inferred that the manufacture of high-topped leather in Germany has seen its last day. This is anticipated by the German manufacturers, and every one is trying to discover the secret of the American production. Some have even sent to the United States for workmen.

There are dealers in American leather in all the larger cities, and many of them handle it exclusively. Prices in German leather have advanced very much, which makes it the easier to obtain the increased prices for the American article.

B. &amp; O. DANGER SPOT.

Fatal Accident Narrowly Averted at the R Street Crossing.

At the R Street crossing of the Metropolitan Branch, at Edington, on Saturday last, what might have proved a serious accident and added another to the already long list of grade crossing casualties of this city, was averted by the display of presence of mind.

A two-horse wagon, containing two colored men, was approaching from the west about 1 p. m., and when the horse was almost over the track, the driver discovered that a train, composed of an engine and two freight cars, was coming from behind a line of cars that were standing beside the warehouse on the west of the track.

He quickly pulled the horse to the left and the engine passed the wagon within three inches. His companion stood not on the order of going, but went instantly out of the back of the wagon.

This is a particularly dangerous place, and there ought to be a flagman stationed there during the day at least, as there is more travel over it than all the crossings between New York Avenue and Brookland combined.

MISSION AT ST. PETER'S.

Bishop of Mobile, Rev. Jeremiah O'Sullivan, Conducts Opening Exercises.

The 11 o'clock service yesterday at St. Peter's Church, on Capitol Hill, was the occasion of great religious pomp and solemnity. A ten-day mission was begun, under the auspices of three eloquent missionaries of the Redemptionist order, Fathers Brick, Ritter, and Henley, of New York.

Father Brick made the opening address, giving the order of exercises to be observed during the mission. Masses will be celebrated at 5, 7, and 9 o'clock a. m. The devotions of the stations of the cross will begin at 3 p. m., and at 7 p. m. the principal feature, the grand mission sermon, will take place.

Bishop O'Sullivan then preached a fervent and impressive sermon on the object and advantages of these devotions, dwelling on the scriptural exhortations, "I will call these into the solitude and there will I speak to thy heart."

Bishop O'Sullivan, who has spent the past week in Washington, attending the Ecumenical Congress, and the ceremonies at the Catholic University, left last evening for his home in Mobile. He intends to be present at the meeting of the Catholic Winter School, which will be held in New Orleans in November.
